

Paula Costa e Silva

Professor of Law, Lisbon University; Member, Board of the Portuguese Association for Arbitration; Member, Consulting Council of Concordia; Chair, Institute for Brazilian law; Chair, Board of Directors of the Securities Institute; Legal Consultant; Arbitrator

Ms. Costa e Silva is a Professor of Law at the Lisbon University. She specializes in Arbitration, Securities, Civil Procedure Law and Legal Theory teaching both undergraduate and master students.

Ms. Costa e Silva is also a Member of the Board of the Portuguese Association for Arbitration since May 2017. Moreover, in May 2015, she joined the Consulting Council of Concordia, a centre for conciliation, mediation and arbitration situated in Lisbon.

Since March 2017, Ms. Costa e Silva is chairing both the Institute for Brazilian Law and the Board of Directors of the Securities Institute, of which she is President 2011.

Ms. Costa e Silva is active in the legal community acting as Legal Consultant and Arbitrator, being a Counsel at the Portuguese since 1988 as well as, most recently, at the Brazilian Bar.